

Hoffa Move to Oust Monitor Head Denied

WASHINGTON (AP)—The U.S. Court of Appeals today rejected a move by Teamsters Union President James R. Hoffa to oust Martin F. O'Donoghue as chairman of a court-appointed board of monitors.

The Teamsters Union had appealed from an order of Dist. Judge F. Dickinson Letts denying a motion to remove O'Donoghue.

The court said the union's claim of conflict of interest did not require the court as a matter of law to hold O'Donoghue was disqualified to act under Judge Letts' appointment.

The union, which has been fighting O'Donoghue at every turn, contended he was disqualified to serve as chairman of the board of monitors on the ground he had represented the union in early phases of litigation to bar Hoffa from taking office as union president.

The monitoring is an outgrowth of a suit brought by New York area rank-and-file members to invalidate Hoffa's election as union president.

Under a compromise settlement of the suit, Hoffa was allowed to take office provisionally, but a board of monitors was appointed to supervise a union cleanup.

Cash Okayed for Federal Buildings

WASHINGTON (AP)—The House Appropriations Committee today approved $162,007,000 for construction of 20 federal buildings.

The projects, with construction funds shown first, site and non-construction expenses next, include: Memphis, Tenn., $9,587,150 and $1,894,000.

Tax Deadline Is Re-set for Monday

WASHINGTON (AP)—Taxpayers are getting a surprise Easter present from Uncle Sam. The deadline for filing income tax returns has been postponed until midnight next Monday.

The normal deadline would have been midnight Friday, but the Internal Revenue Service gave a three-day grace period because April 15 this year falls on Good Friday.

Believed Poor But Left a Huge Fortune

CHICAGO (AP)—A 78-year-old German-born wig maker who was believed nearly penniless when he died last month left a fortune of more than $385,000, an inventory disclosed Wednesday.

Max Roeder, who lived in a $4 a week room and whose assets at his death were believed to be $120 and the clothes he was wearing, was fatally injured on March 9 when he fell in an elevator shaft in a Loop building.

Thomas J. Downs, public administrator, took charge of Roeder's estate after his death.

He said an inventory of the contents of a safe deposit box Roeder kept in the Cosmopolitan National Bank included $266,000 in stocks, $40,450 in cash, $53,650 in bank deposits, $5,000 in matured government savings bonds, several articles of jewelry, 335 shares of stock not currently quoted and two parcels of real estate.

Roeder left no known heirs, Downs said, but he is checking a report there may be a sister living in Switzerland. In the event no heirs are found, it was believed the estate will go to Cook County.

Frank Walters Announces for Sheriff

Frank Walters today authorized the Star to announce his candidacy for the office of Hempstead County Sheriff and Collector. In making this announcement he issued the following statement:

To the People of Hempstead County:

After serious consideration, and after consulting with many of you, my friends and neighbors, I have decided to seek election to the office of Sheriff and Collector of Hempstead County in the coming democratic primary.

I take this opportunity to announce my candidacy for this office to all the people of Hempstead County, realizing full well that not all of the people of this County are qualified voters, but I do this to emphasize that if I am elected your Sheriff and Collector I will act in the best interests of all the people of this County, including our children and other groups who for one reason or another have not become qualified voters. I do this with the feeling that those of you who have become qualified electors, and upon whose vote I must depend in seeking election as your Sheriff and Collector, would want me to so conduct the activities of this office, that is in a strictly impartial manner, without bestowing special favors on any individual or group of individuals.

Most of you know me well and I do not need to recite my background; but for the benefit of those of you who are comparatively new citizens of our county, let me state that I am 53 years of age and have lived in Hempstead County the past 42 years without interruption. I have during those 42 years married and raised two sons. I am married to the former Evelyn Franks, and our oldest son is now engaged in the teaching profession, our youngest boy being a teen-ager in the 11th grade of Hope High School.

For most of my younger life I worked as an automobile mechanic and for the past several years have owned and operated my own business as an automotive repair shop and a farm equipment dealer. The nature of my work and the business in which I was engaged has enabled me to come into close contact with practically all the citizens of this County from all walks of life.

I am a member of the First Methodist Church and have been so for 25 years, and am also a member of the Whitfield Masonic Lodge.

As I stated I reached the decision to seek the office of Sheriff and Collector of my county, only after the most serious consideration and after ascertaining that many of the law enforcement activities of this office could be greatly improved, which activities are so vital to the protection of our citizens.

Sen. McClellan Points to What Wasn't Passed

LITTLE ROCK (AP)—Sen. John L. McClellan said today that the important feature of the Senate battle over civil rights "was not what was passed but what was kept from passing."

And the senior Arkansas senator added in an interview that there'll continue to be agitation over civil rights "as long as the extreme liberals, the NAACP, the ADA and that crowd sees prospects of political rewards for themselves" in keeping the controversy alive.

The NAACP is the National Assn. for the Advancement of Colored People; the ADA is the Americans for Democratic Action.

McClellan said he would have a political statement to make before he returns to Washington from his Eastern vacation.

That is considered certain to be his formal announcement that he is a candidate for another term in the Senate.

McClellan flew to Little Rock from Washington yesterday.

McClellan said there were many "vicious" proposals in the Senate civil rights bill which Southern senators managed to block.

He said one of the most distasteful of these was the proposal that Congress go on record as approving the U. S. Supreme Court decision against school segregation.

"Another," McClellan said, "was that Congress authorize and pay for technical assistance to school districts that would integrate."

"This was for nothing in the world but to pay glorified brain washers to impose integration in the South where they don't want it."

Read to Be Sentenced on Friday

Frank Edwin Read, 24, of Fort Worth, Texas has pleaded guilty to two counts of robbery and one of burglary in connection with an outbreak of shootings and robberies here a week ago.

He pleaded innocent to three counts of assault with intent to kill, one of grand larceny and one of possessing a stolen auto. He will be sentenced in Hempstead Circuit Court Friday.

Read, 24, of Fort Worth, Tex., is accused of wounding a service station attendant in a $100 robbery, pistol-whipping an attendant in an $85 service station holdup, and wounding a Hope man who scuffled with him after he wrecked a stolen car used in the crime spree.

He is charged on three counts of assault with intent to kill, two of robbery, one of burglary, one of grand larceny and one of possessing a stolen automobile.

The cocky Texan joked with Hope police when they corraled him April 7, a few hours after the robberies and shootings. He told of being an ex-convict and remarked he expected to "get life this time."

Circuit Judge Lyle Brown fixed bond of $20,000 at Read's arraignment, the day after the escape. Read failed to post it, and has been held in Hempstead County Jail.

Easter Egg Hunt Starts Sunday 2:30

The 4th annual Easter Egg hunt, sponsored by the Hope Jaycees, will be held Sunday at 2:30 p.m. at Fair Park. Over 2,000 individually wrapped candy eggs will be hidden in the park for this event.

Children will be divided into four age groups, making it possible for a child to hunt eggs with youngsters of their own age.

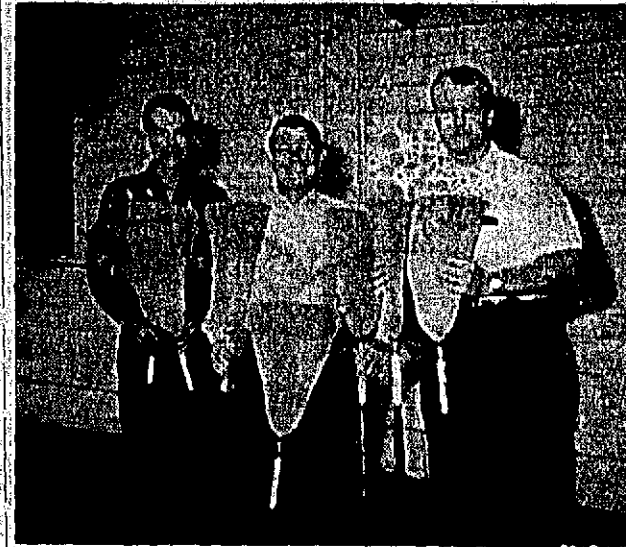

Fair Park will be closed at 2:30 Sunday and will remain closed until the hunting areas are roped off and the eggs are hidden. Children should assemble at the tennis courts and the hunt starts at 2:30 p.m.

Auxiliary police will handle parking of cars and direct traffic.

Request Before CC

WASHINGTON (AP)—The Communications Commission has received this application for a new radio station: Forrest City, Ark. — Forrest City Broadcasting Co. (William B. Fogg and Associates), box 707, Forrest City, for FM frequency 93.3 megacycles.

Lions Plan Sale of Brooms

HOPE HIGH FUTURE Farmers of America, judging teams, along with FFA Sweethearts, Kaye Downing, and the FFA band, travel to Magnolia today to compete with 50 other teams in a district contest. Kaye will represent the Black Land Federation in the district sweetheart contest, doing a soft shoe dance. The top seven teams in each contest will be eligible to go to the state contest at the University of Arkansas. The group will be accompanied by Burgess Garrott, vocational agriculture instructor.

Reminds of Conference on Millwood

Hope citizens are reminded of the all-important Millwood Breakfast meeting next Tuesday morning in Shreveport at 7:30 and those attending from Hope will leave the Chamber of Commerce office at 6 a.m. in a motorcade, with police escort.

"This is not just a man's meeting, we invite the ladies also, we want people that are interested in the development of this area through the construction of Millwood Dam," said Fred Ellis, president of the C of C, "and a good showing at this meeting will be a factor in getting some action on this project."

Tickets are on sale at the C of C office and those that can take a car are asked to notify the Chamber office at their earliest convenience.

Contest of Churches to Come to End

Easter Sunday will bring the conclusion to the contest between the Men's Bible Classes of the Presbyterian Sunday Schools of Hope and Prescott. Unless something most unusual happens the Prescott class will win as they are ahead by 263 points as of last Sunday, 3,704 to 3,441.

The local Presbyterians have usually outnumbered their rivals in attendance, however the Prescott class has had about a half dozen more regular members than Hope, which have compiled more and more points each Sunday.

The winners will be entertained by the losers at a banquet.

Gordon Bayless will teach the local class this Sunday and Mrs. Haskell Jones will sing.

All Around Town

By The Star Staff

For the first time in many years the annual Easter Sunrise Service will be held outside, weather permitting, the service, sponsored by the Ministerial Alliance, will be held at 6:30 a.m. Sunday in the Hope High School football stadium.

Nelson Cox, director of the Arkansas Game and Fish Commission, will speak tonight at a meeting of the Hempstead County Wildlife Association at 7:30 at Hempstead Courthouse. Mr. Cox will give a report on the Burs of Are project, according to Dorsey McRae, president of the local association.

Ministers in Agreement on Summit Talks

By LEWIS GLICK

WASHINGTON (AP)—The Western foreign ministers today concluded three days of talks with word they agree on strategy to be used at next month's summit meeting with the Russians.

Secretary of State Christian A. Herter told newsmen "We have had a very satisfactory meeting."

"Agreement was reached," chimed in France's Maurice Couve de Murville.

The final session, which lasted less than two hours, was devoted to the catchall topic of "East-West relations."

These included secondary plans considered for presentation to the Soviets at the heads-of-state summit parley starting in Paris May 16.

Wednesday, the U. S., French and British foreign affairs chiefs reached speedy accord on two major items headed for summit discussions—Germany-Berlin and disarmament.

But U. S. officials were reported cool toward a French plan for East-West control of arms shipments to newly emerging countries.

Among other things, they fear such big-power control might give the appearance of dictatorship toward the smaller nations.

Secretary of State Christian A. Herter was also said to be lukewarm to a British proposal for seeking Soviet agreement to an international code of ethics. The United Nations already has such a code. But he was more favorably disposed toward stepping up cultural and information exchanges with the Soviet Union.

These and a host of other ideas were up for possible scrutiny under the catchall "East-West" relations agenda slated for the wind-up meeting of the three-day foreign ministers conference.

Herter, Britain's Selwyn Lloyd and France's Maurice Couve de Murville are charting strategy for their government heads to use at the summit parley with the Soviet Union starting in Paris May 16.

Wednesday the foreign ministers held separate meetings on two major cold war disputes headed for summit discussion—Germany-Berlin and disarmament—and speedily came to "complete agreement."

Basically, they drafted no new proposal but reaffirmed fundamental positions previously taken by the West on these issues.

On Germany and Berlin, they agreed to seek a temporary solution of the Berlin problem provided Allied rights in the Communist-surrounded city are not impaired. They retained their goal of a free, unified Germany.

On disarmament, the Western ministers agreed to consider seriously "any practical disarmament proposal" the Soviets might offer. They advanced no new plan of their own, reaffirming instead the Western ideas put forth at the deadlocked Geneva disarmament talks.

"This is not just a man's meeting, we invite the ladies also, we want people that are interested in the development of this area through the construction of Millwood Dam," said Fred Ellis, president of the C of C, "and a good showing at this meeting will be a factor in getting some action on this project."

Beverly Just a Call Girl, Officers Say

By PATRICK McNULTY

HOLLYWOOD (AP)—"If only Errol Flynn were still alive in this mess," says the bleached-blond mother of 17-year-old Beverly Aadland.

The late actor's ex-mistress was described Wednesday by juvenile authorities as a $100-a-date call girl who, since the age of 12, had "engaged in numerous acts of sexual intercourse."

Authorities filed a petition seeking to make Beverly a ward of juvenile court. She faces a near-10-year sentence.

Beverly has been held in custody since William Stancu, a handsome aspiring actor, was shot fatally in her apartment last Saturday. Homicide detectives say they are satisfied with her story and that Stancu was shot during a nude struggle for his revolver.

Two Die in Crash

PERRIN, Mo., (AP)—A crippled air force B-47 crashed in a pasture near here yesterday, killing two airmen. Two others bailed out of the 6-engine jet plane and escaped with minor injuries.

Killed were Capt. Phillip R. Fisher, an instructor pilot at Fort Ben Air Force Base in Tuleka, Kan., and 1st Lt. Wayne P. Weld. At the Vesper service the subject man, 26, Salina, Kan., a student of the sermon will be "Easter's Afterglow."

Severe Weather Warning Issued

LITTLE ROCK (AP)—The U.S. Weather Bureau at Little Rock today issued the following severe weather warning:

"Thunderstorm activity currently in eastern Oklahoma is expected to intensify early this afternoon with scattered severe thunderstorms accompanied by large hail and strong winds from 1 p.m. to 7 p.m. (CST) in an area along and 50 miles north and 50 miles south of a line from 40 miles south of Tulsa, Okla., to 80 miles north-east of Fort Smith, Ark."

"This includes all or portions Benton, Carroll, Boone, Washington, Madison, Newton, Crawford, Franklin, Johnson, Sebastian, and Logan counties in Arkansas."

The forecast did not mention any possibility of tornadoes.

Bomb Threat Crackdown by the FBI

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP)—"Zip your lip." That wartime security slogan looks more and more like good advice to airline travelers who get an impulse to crack a "joke" about a bomb.

The FBI's arrest here Wednesday night of Julius Roudolph Radwanski, 38, Huntington Valley, Pa., on a false bomb report charge was the fifth such arrest in eight days.

Radwanski allegedly replied to a "your bag is heavy" comment by a Trans World Airlines employee at Port Columbus Airport with the remark, "There's a bomb in it." Then he found himself in FBI custody. By shortly after midnight he had been brought before U.S. Commissioner Robert W. Newton for a hearing.

Radwanski was released on $1,000 bond, reported E. D. Mason, FBI special agent stationed at Cincinnati who related the incident. Radwanski, a sales engineer for a Philadelphia construction firm, is to appear in U.S. District Court next Wednesday.

TWA flight 300 from Columbus to Pittsburgh was delayed 32 minutes while officials searched for the bomb. None was found.

Earlier Wednesday in San Francisco a neon tube bomber was charged with the same offense.

The U.S. attorney's office filed the charge against William A. Grant of Belmont, Calif.

A United Air Lines spokesman said Grant was trying to take out insurance on his wife after seeing her aboard a Los Angeles-bound DC-8 jet when he made his remark. Told Mrs. Grant would have to sign any insurance forms, Grant allegedly said, "Well, I guess the bomb won't do any good then."

Mrs. Grant was removed from the plane and her baggage searched. The airliner left 40 minutes late.

A false bomb report carries a maximum penalty of a $1,000 fine and or one year in prison. And the U. S. Department of Justice has said it will vigorously prosecute such cases, with U. S. attorneys requesting jail sentences for persons convicted.

Other arrests in recent days were made at Tulsa, Okla., Sarasota, Fla. and Indianapolis, Ind. All involved traveling busi-ness executives alleged to have made remarks about a bomb.

Candlelight Services by Presbyterians

Two special services will bring the Pre-Easter meeting at the Presbyterian Church to a close. Thursday evening the annual candlelight communion service will be held. The sanctuary will be illuminated by candles and the illuminated cross only. The Junior Choir will sing "Let Us Break Bread Together."

On Friday evening, Jan. Ellis will sing "What You There?" the sermon subject will be the theme of the song. During the sermon all the lights except the illuminated cross will be turned off.

Both of these services will be held at 7:30 and everyone is invited to attend.

Easter services at the church will include an Easter Cantata "The Easter Sunrise Song" at the morning worship service with a brief message by the minister on the subject "Believe Thou This?"

At the Vesper service the subject man, 26, Salina, Kan., a student of the sermon will be "Easter's Afterglow."

Judge Rejects Try to Delay Sidown Case

LITTLE ROCK (AP)—Municipal Judge Quinn Glover today rejected an attempt to get a 100-week delay in a hearing for eight Negro college students arrested after lunch room demonstrations.

Glover set the cases for trial next Thursday.

An attorney for the Negroes, Harold Anderson, had sought the delay.

All eight male students at Methodist-supported Philander Smith College for Negroes were charged with violating a 1959 Arkansas law which forbids a breach of the public peace.

Two also were charged with breaking another state law which makes it an offense to refuse to leave a business establishment upon the operator's request.

These two—Frank James Upper and Thomas B. Robinson, both 20—were taken into custody at the Blass department store. The other six were arrested in the lunch room at Pfeifers department store.

The arrests were made shortly before noon yesterday.

Some of the Negroes wore lapel badges protesting segregation.

These arrested at Pfeifers were William Rogers Jr., 19; Eugene D. Smith, 21; Melvin T. Jackson, 20; and Meloyd Buchanan, Winston Jones and Sammy Baker, all 18.

The demonstrations were the fourth sitdowns at Little Rock since March 10. On that day the first sitdown occurred at Woolworth's chain variety store.

Five Negroes were arrested in the first demonstration. They also were students at Philander Smith.

U. S. Requests of New Jobs Is Denied

WASHINGTON (AP)—Administration requests for more than 1,200 new government jobs were denied today by the House Appropriations Committee in an $8,142,223,900 omnibus money bill for the year starting July 1.

The proposed new jobs would have been scattered through more than a score of miscellaneous agencies whose appropriations are provided in the bill.

New funds approved were $270,729,600 less than President Eisenhower had requested but were $15,108,360,200 more than the same agencies were given for the current year ending June 30.

Included were funds for a pension for Eisenhower starting next year, $5,322,002,000 for the Veterans Administration, 99 million dollars for airline subsidies, 160 million for slum clearance and urban renewal grants, 5 million to start an experimental program on housing for needy elderly persons, fine and or one year in prison. And the U. S. Department of Justice has said it will vigorously prosecute such cases, with U. S. attorneys requesting jail sentences for persons convicted.

Other arrests in recent days were made at Tulsa, Okla., Sarasota, Fla. and Indianapolis, Ind. All involved traveling business executives alleged to have made remarks about a bomb.

The President's pension is provided under a law which now applies to Herbert Hoover, Harry S. Truman and the widows of Woodrow Wilson and Franklin D. Roosevelt.

Eisenhower had requested financing for about 8,200 new jobs in the various agencies, the biggest increases being 5,025 for the Federal Aviation Agency and 1,300 for the National Aeronautics and Space Administration. The committee cut 907 from the aviation agency request and 373 from the space agency.

Construction Even With a Year Ago

NEW YORK (AP)—Heavy construction contract awards reported for the week ended Monday amounted to $397,800,000. Engineering News-Record and Construction Daily said today.

The total was made up of $171,400,000 in private construction and $226,400,000 in public construction.

This brought volume for 1959 to $5,422,700,000, on a par with the 1959 pace.

The other primary duty of the office I seek is no less important to every person in our county, that of establishing an efficient organization for the proper collection of our taxes and the maintenance of proper records with reference to such collections. In this connection, I feel that it is the further duty of the person holding this office, to perform this function as economically as is possible with a minimum of wasted effort and expense.
I am well aware of the liquor traffic in this county and the enforcement problems which it causes. And I know of the efforts being made by a number of interested groups to correct this situation as best they can, and I pledge my fullest cooperation to each of these official and unofficial organizations in attempting to reduce to a minimum this traffic which so endangers the lives of our youth, the life-blood of our county's future.
In this connection, I might say that I know of several ways to reduce the present traffic in liquor in this county, and solemnly pledge to every citizen of this county, that I will utilize every conceivable course of action available to me in this regard.
I feel that my past experiences and associations with the problems of our county make me qualified to serve you as your Sheriff and Collector, and it is on that basis and with the above pledges sincerely made that I earnestly solicit the vote and support of you the people of Hempstead County in the coming Democratic Primary.

Lauderdale Will Appeal Conviction
LITTLE ROCK (AP) — E. A. Lauderdale, Sr., 48 yesterday, appealed his conviction in a Labor Day bombing to the Arkansas Supreme Court.
Lauderdale, a segregationist leader, was sentenced to three years in prison and fined $500. He was convicted by a Pulaski Circuit Court jury in connection with an explosion which damaged Little Rock School District headquarters.
He is free on $50,000 bond. Two other targets were bombed the day—the business office of Mayor Werner Knopf and a station wagon of Fire Chief Gann Nalley.
Lauderdale was named by prosecutors as the man who planned the three bombings and furnished the dynamite for them. Lauderdale denied it.
Two other men have been convicted in the bombings, but have not entered prison pending appeals. One man pleaded guilty and is serving a five-year prison sentence. A fifth defendant has not yet been tried.

Add Assault to a Charge of Murder
MARION, Ark. (AP)—The state plans to back its first degree murder charge against Jerry L. Blankenship with a new charge of assault with intent to rape.
The announcement yesterday by Deputy Prosecutor Julian Fogleman of Marion came shortly after the State Hospital in Little Rock ruled that Blankenship is sane.
The medical report said Blankenship, 17, of Memphis, also was "probably" sane last Feb. 20—the night officers say he clubbed 14-year-old Carol Arlene Feathers to death because she resisted his advances.
Fogleman said the state would try to put Blankenship in the electric chair. Whether the rape charge would actually be tried depends on the outcome of the murder trial, he added.
Sheriff Cecil V. Goodwin said he would have Blankenship returned here from Little Rock within a week.
Carol's body was found on a dump heap near the Mississippi River bridge at Memphis. She was a junior high student at Memphis. Officers said she met Blankenship at a roadside nightclub near West Memphis and the beating occurred when he parked while driving her home.

Markets Moves Are Uneven Early
By ED MORSE
AP Business News Writer
NEW YORK (AP) — The stock market moved unevenly early this afternoon in moderate pre-Easter weekend trading.
Gains and losses of fractions to about a point were the general rule among pivotal issues. A few specially situated stocks made wider moves.
The market was higher at the start in a brief show of strength, then interest lagged and prices turned irregular.
The market will be closed Friday in observance of Good Friday and traders seemed unwilling to extend commitments over the long weekend.
The background included Treasury Secretary Anderson's forecast that 1960 promises to be the most prosperous year in history. The technical position of the stock market, however, was such as to create some doubt about prospects for the near term.
The trend was mostly lower among the major steels, motors, drugs, aircrafts and coppers, the latter despite improvement in world prices for the red metal.

Dynamite Blast in Atlanta, Ga.
By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS
A dynamite bomb was ignited Wednesday night in a home recently acquired by a Negro family in a formerly all-white neighborhood of Atlanta.
The Negro family was not at home at the time of the bombing. Neighbors said the family had moved in Tuesday night. Damage was light and no injuries were reported.
Neighbors said a group of white youths had pelted the house with rocks Tuesday night. The Negro owner came to the front door, packed a shotgun and threatened to kill his tormentors if they didn't quit, the neighbors said.
A detective, Capt. R. E. Little, said he didn't think "whoever did this (bombing) tried to destroy the house. I think they just wanted to scare somebody."
In Miami, Fla., Negroes demanding integrated lunch counter service scheduled a meeting today to discuss whether to continue sit-down demonstrations or confer with city officials first.
Such a conference was proposed Wednesday by city officials. Mayor Robert King High said the Miami Bi-Racial Committee has agreed to discuss the possibility of lunch counter desegregation.
Nestor Morales, chairman of the committee, was quoted Wednesday as saying executives of eight stores had agreed to integrate on a date to be set by the city commission. He later denied having made the statements.
A Negro minister in Savannah, Ga., reported receiving several threatening telephone calls, warning that his life is in danger because he opposes sit-downs, boycotts and other integrationist tactics.
The Rev. James C. McMillan, pastor of Emmanuel Baptist Church, said his wife received similar calls from persons who refused to identify themselves.
Elsewhere:
Fifteen Negro parents started action in federal court to force integration of public schools of Clarendon County, S.C.

Two Negro girls staged a brief sit-in at a Chattanooga, Tenn., lunch counter Wednesday night, but were served standing after police arrived. No arrests were made.
In Amherst, Mass., student leaders estimated at least 300 students will picket the White House and Capitol Friday in an integration demonstration.
Two Jackson, Miss., Negro leaders complained to the State Advisory Committee of the U.S. Civil Rights Commission about alleged racial discrimination in interstate bus and train stations. John Wesley Dixon and the Rev. G. A. Houghton, both directors of the Jackson branch National Assn. for the Advancement of Colored People, also said in their complaint that there are no tax-supported schools for Negroes in Mississippi.
Swifton Woman Dies
NEWPORT, Ark. (AP) — Mrs. Paul Brann, 73, of nearby Smith died at a Newport hospital last night.
She was the widow of Paul Brann Sr., and the mother of Paul Brann, director of the Mississippi Economic Research Center at Jackson, Miss.
Other survivors include another son, Ben Brann, Jr.; a daughter, Mrs. Helen B. Mitts; and a brother, Maurice Jones, all of Swifton.
The funeral will be held at 2 p.m. tomorrow in charge of Rev. Elbert Brummer. Burial will be in Swifton Cemetery.

PHNOM PENH, Cambodia (AP)—Prince Norodom Sihanouk, former king and dominant political figure in Cambodia, has resigned as premier and refused to form a new government. He gave "personal difficulties" as the reason.

DOROTHY DIX

Few Understand Girls at 14

Dear Dorothy Dix:

I'm 14. Around this age girls seem to get closer to their parents. Mine hate me. My father won't take me anywhere. He's always yelling at me. He bangs my head against the wall, hits me with shoes, slaps me with belt buckles and swears at me.

My mother yells at me. She never gives me advice or clothes or most of all, her love. I have few clothes and wasn't remembered at Christmas or on my birthday. My parents seem to care about my three brothers. I used to love my parents but I'm at the point where I won't even call them my parents. I wish I were dead. Please help me.—Unloved

Dear Unloved: At 14 you are figuratively speaking in the process of being weaned from your parents. When parents don't understand this, their tempers and yours boil over. You say you once loved them. You still do in your heart of hearts, and they you. Show them your letter and my reply. Let me know the results.

Dear Dorothy Dix:

I am a sophomore in high school, 15 years old. In grade school I received A's and B's. My first D was in high school. I'm scared to death! Will I be a complete failure through life? My main trouble is concentration. I do my homework, get along fine with my teachers but I hate to read.

People tell me I look 17, and act 20. I like to talk politics and world affairs but all that kids my age are interested in is dances, movies and so forth. Half the girls are so silly I can't stand to go out with them. I'm very much a part of our family and worry about our problems. Most kids have a wonderful, carefree time yet get good grades. How can I stop worrying, get better grades and have a better time? I feel like an old man who has nothing to live for. God bless you for any advice.—D.C.

Dear D.C.: Recognize this for what it is—the painful process of growing up! Physical growth is only part of this complex business. It also means mental, emotional, and social maturing. If these various divisions don't synchronize, it is baffling to say the least. That's what has happened in your case. Once you understand this, it won't be so hard to take. Do the best you can and know that one day you'll be all of a piece. In extreme cases, doctors sometimes tone up laggard glands. Why don't you talk to your doctor?

Dear Dorothy Dix:

I'm 19, engaged to a man 21. I can't seem to please him. He says I only pay attention when he's got money. He says he loves me but the way he treats me, I wonder. When I mention marriage, he changes the subject. Please give me your advice.—Urgent

Dear Urgent: I fear neither of you realize what marriage involves:

1. Mutual love
2. Companionship
3. Establishment of home and family

If you are drawn to one another as a lodestone to a star, share the same interests and dream dreams which you wish to make of 21. But finding none of this in your letter, I can only counsel you to wait for the right man. Meanwhile, make yourself worthy of him.

Send your problem to DOROTHY DIX, Box 510, enclosed in a stamped, self-addressed envelope, and address her in care of this newspaper.

Rich French Auto Maker's Son Kidnaped
By DAVID MASON

PARIS (AP)—Members of the wealthy Peugeot auto-making family left the family apartment several times today, leading to speculation that contact with the kidnapers of 4-year-old Eric Peugeot was being made secretly. The kidnapers have demanded $100,000 in ransom.
The ransom note dropped by the child's abductor Tuesday afternoon said instructions for paying would be forthcoming within 48 hours and that period ended at 5 p.m.
Police agreed to keep clear of and direct negotiations for release of the boy, taken from a playground sandbox.
But an hour and a half after the deadline had passed, the boy's father, Roland, said: "I have no news up to now of my child."
Police agreed to steer clear of any direct negotiations the family might arrange with the abductors of 4-year-old Eric Peugeot, snatched from a playground sandbox Tuesday afternoon.
Every policeman in France was alerted to watch for the child with the blond crew cut, the lanky, dark-haired young man who grabbed him, and another man who drove them away in a Peugeot-made car.
Associates of the family said there had been no contact with the abductors since two enigmatic phone calls the night after the kidnapping.
The first telephone call came about six hours after the kidnapping. The caller asked for Eric's father, then hung up. An hour later, a second call asked if the ransom letter had been found. When the note was in hand, the caller again hung up.
The distraught father, Roland Peugeot, appealed for the boy's return in a nationwide telecast Wednesday night.
"My only care is to find him again safe and sound as quickly as possible," he said. "I have not made a complaint to the police. I formally promise to ask that the kidnaper should not be prosecuted."

One of the kidnapers, described as lanky and dark haired, walked into the playground of the St. Cloud Country Club, picked up the boy from a sandpile, joined his confederate waiting in a Peugeot sedan and rode off.

Eric's nurse and the family chauffeur, chatting in a car nearby, were unaware that anything had happened until Eric's 7-year-old brother ran up to report, "Eric has left with a man." They found a ransom note in the sandbox and immediately telephoned the parents.

Hobbie Pitches
Cubs to Win
Over Dodgers

By ED WILKS
Associated Press Sports Writer

Quite a young man, this Glen Hobbie of the Chicago Cubs. He waited until the Los Angeles Dodgers were world champs before he finally beat them.

The big (6-3) right-hander, 0-2 against the Dodgers as a rookie when they were seventh place failures in 1959, and 0-2 again last year when they won the pennant, nailed 'em but pood Wednesday night. He out-pitched Larry Sherry, the relief hero of the World Series, and put away the first out of the infant National League season with a five-hit, 4-0 decision at Los Angeles.

That left the favored San Francisco Giants all alone in first place. They made it two out of two by whipping the St. Louis Cardinals 6-1 on the three-hit pitching of lefty Mike McCormick who didn't allow a hit until the eighth inning. They were the only two games scheduled.

While the Dodgers and Giants swap faces tonight, the eastern clubs stage the second round of openers. Milwaukee is at Philadelphia for a night game. Cincinnati played at Pittsburgh this afternoon.

Hobbie, still 10 days shy of his 24th birthday, gave up nothing but

Philippine Champ
Back to Coast

CHICAGO (AP) — Rocky Kalingo, the Philippine welterweight champion, is going back to Los Angeles where it's warm after being cooled off in Chicago in more ways than one.

Sugar Hart of Philadelphia, seventh rated contender, scored a fifth round technical knockout over Rocky Wednesday night, spoiling his scheduled 10-round national television debut in Chicago Stadium. Hart weighed 152, Kalingo 145.

Kalingo, a 5-2 underdog, was conked by a right-left combination near the end of the fourth round. He sagged to his knees and the count reached seven before the bell ended the round.

Dr. Irving Stolt of the Illinois Athletic Commission examined the 24-year-old Kalingo between rounds and ruled he was in no condition to continue. He was dazed, and a cut in scar tissue over his left eye was bleeding freely.

Gridders to Face
First Big Test

FAYETTEVILLE, Ark. (AP) — Arkansas football prospects face their first big test of spring practice today, in a game-condition scrimmage which will be filmed for grading purposes.

Coaches will review the films in assigning the 73 spring football candidates to various teams.

Yesterday, the Porkers worked on fundamentals, with some practice scrimmage, in a workout which coach Frank Broyles termed "lousy." High winds stalled scheduled work on passing.

Spring drills recess for a week after tomorrow's session. Practice resumes April 25 for 14 more days.

State Wins Over
N. Dakota Team

JONESBORO, Ark. (AP) — A one-run ninth inning rally gave Arkansas State an 8-7 baseball victory over North Dakota yesterday.

North Dakota, down 7-4 at the end of eight innings, scored three runs in the ninth to tie it up. In the Indians' half of the inning, Tot Bentley singled, stole second, then scored the winning tally on Tommy Paul's single.

singles and shut off the Dodgers with one hit over the last six innings. His only problem was wildness. He walked six, struck out three.

Home runs by Ernie Banks and Frank Thomas got the job done for Hobbie, the Cubs' leader in victories (16) and shutouts (three) last season.

The Giants made it a quick breeze for McCormick, who duplicated Sam Jones' opening day three-hitter against the Cards. And it was Leon Wagner, an ex-Giant, who again saved the Cards from a shutout with a home run.

McCormick, 21, retired the first 17 men before reliever Ernie Broglio reached base on an error at the sixth.

Has Plan for Unity in West Hemisphere

ROCHESTER, N.Y. (AP)—Gov. Nelson A. Rockefeller outlined today a five-point program for West Hemisphere unity and said that Communist China was making inroads in South America.

Rockefeller recommended as a first step that the United States support "an all-out effort to achieve closer cooperation and fairer political unity among the 21 American nations."

The Republican governor, still being mentioned as a presidential possibility despite his withdrawal last December as a candidate, told a Pan American Day luncheon of the Rochester Chamber of Commerce: "What is not generally realized is that Communist China, in addition to the Soviet Union, has been making a major effort at achieving influence in our sister republics. In fact, it is conceivable that the Soviet Union and Communist China have agreed to make Latin America primarily a Chinese sphere of influence."

Rockefeller, who owns property in South America, called for U.S. support of these policies, in addition to cooperation for political unity:

1. A determined, joint effort to raise standards of living through more rapid economic growth.
2. Development of imaginative inter-American programs to meet social problems.
3. Achievement of increased mutual understanding through exchange of people, information and cultural activities.
4. More frequent meetings of the ministers of foreign affairs to deal with common problems.

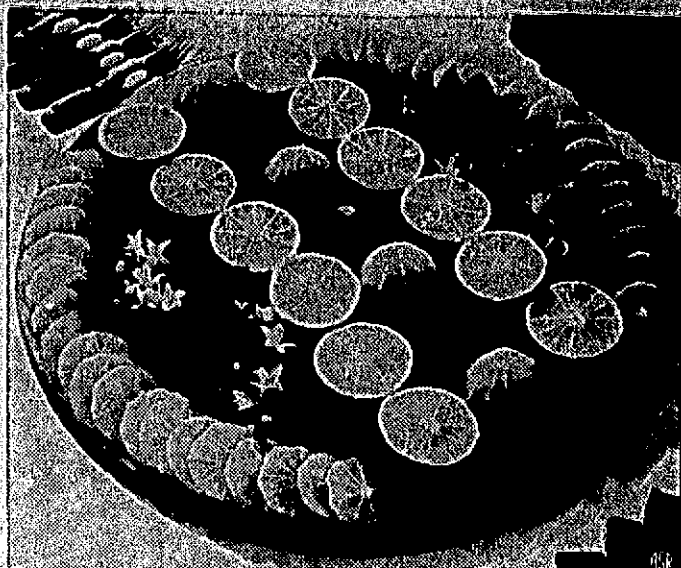

Rockefeller said the basic goals were "strengthening of the forces of democracy in all the 21 American republics" and "genuine unity and political solidarity among the Americas."

Raising the standards of living, he said, is a problem "of staggering dimensions."

"Just to keep pace with the rising population is truly a formidable task," the governor said. "Yet I am confident that the goal is attainable."

The shortest distance across the Atlantic Ocean is 1,850 miles between Dakar, Africa and the bulge of Brazil.

Valencias Buena Vista

A pleasant sight indeed is this tray of Florida Valencia oranges, and it's a view you can enjoy from now until June.

This large and juicy variety of orange is virtually seedless, too, a boon in preparing salads and fruit cups. For a pretty pinwheel effect, slice the oranges rather than sectioning. Since you can't improve on that fresh-squeezed flavor, keep Valencias on hand and treat your family to the real thing often for breakfast and pick-up drinks.

Cinnamon Oranges, said to have originated in South America, are fun to make so get out your sharp knife for peeling oranges and go to work supplying them. Valencias, like all Florida citrus fruits, are full of daily needed vitamin C, which makes them an extra good confection for children.

Cinnamon Oranges
Cut off peel of each Florida orange in circular motion, cutting deep enough to remove white membrane. Go over fruit again to remove any remaining white membrane. Roll each orange in a mixture of 1 tablespoon confectioners' sugar and 1/4 teaspoon cinnamon. Eat with knife and fork.

Nuns Together

After 40 Years
NEW YORK (AP)—Twin sisters whose duties as Roman Catholic nuns kept them in different parts of the world are together again after 40 years.

Sister Mary Josephine arrived Tuesday from her nursing post in India. At the boat to greet her was her twin, Sister Mary Leonina, who serves at a New York orphanage.

The shortest distance across the Atlantic Ocean is 1,850 miles between Dakar, Africa and the bulge of Brazil.

Figures That Barbering Is on Downgrade

By DOC QUIGG
United Press International

NEW YORK (UPI)—Come on men, admit it: You're vain.

And if you'll just get a little vain, you can help pull that fine fellow, the barber, out of the doldrums, at a faster, shall we say, clip. He may even gain semi-professional status — start advising you how to dress and what haircuts not to recite in mixed company.

The barbering business, according to many sources connected with it, has been on a downgrade since World War II, and barbers have been moaning the low-pay, long-hour blues and pointing out that practically no young men are entering the trade. As one authority put it bluntly: "There was a hell of a lot of home hair-cutting in the 1940's."

But things began looking up three to five years ago. Charles Cabibi, director of the Allas Barber School, says his registration is up 30 per cent over five years ago — mostly late-teenagers. Michael Scott, editor of Barber's Journal, says "the barber profession is pulling itself up by its own bootstraps" by offering added services to men who have become more style conscious in the last couple of years.

Conducts Survey
What are these? A survey in New York shows barbers barging into hair coloring (formerly called "dyeing"), razor cutting ("The sculpture cut," look ma, no scissors), waving (even permamats), and hairpieces (now called "toppers" — "Toupe" is passe, "wig" is frightful).

Of course, you can do-it-yourself on a lot of this stuff but, as one barber said in a sign: "We undo the damage after you don't do a good job yourself."

Cary Grant cuts his own hair — but then, he also turns nifty hand-springs. Most men can't do either without fear of a cropper.

Diana Tessler, a hairpiece maker (Hairlines, Inc.) who now works strictly through barber shops, recently put an ad in a barbers' magazine and got about 400 requests from barbers in 48 states and Canada for her kit. It includes instructions, plus pattern papers to take the shape of the head and a crayon impression of the hairline.

She Makes Hairpiece
The barber sends these in to her, with a snip of the customer's hair, and his picture, and she makes the hairpiece. The barber gets a 25 per cent commission. It's up to him to convince the prospect he's going to look better, feel better, and do better in

Arkansas Diamond Draws High Praise

NEW YORK (AP)—The brightest thing to come out of an Arkansas cow pasture in years is making a shining display of itself here.

It's the big Uncle Sam Diamond, a 12.42 carat cut treasure on exhibit at the American Museum of Natural History through next month. Its value has been set at $250,000.

The rough stone was unearthed in a field at Murfreesboro, Ark., in 1924. The site, from which many industrial diamonds have been taken, is regarded as the only diamond mine in North America.

The site now is operated as a tourist attraction, where diamonds may be hunted for a fee. Some sizeable gems have been found there in recent years.

Middle-Aged Man Is a Dreamer

By HAL BOYLE
NEW YORK (AP)—The middle-aged man is a dreamer.

To the outside eye the average middle-aged man looks about as settled as an old farm barn and as romantic as a broken umbrella.

He has a slightly seedy look of responsibility and respectability, and his face wears the vaguely harassed air of something that has been picked upon too much by time.

But inside his own head the middle-aged man is a quite different fellow.

He is a dreamer. And the dreams he dreams are every bit as wild and unrealistic as those of any adolescent boy. In his own mind's eye he is 25 years old, single and earning about $10,000 a year tax-free. In dreams nobody ever spends time worrying about paying taxes.

Pause at any office water cooler in the land and sooner or later you will hear some careworn coddler give wistful voice to this classic daydream of masculine middle age: "Boy, if I was just a bachelor again and had my present income to spend on myself. Men get married too young. I'd like to have a year off from marriage—just one year."

Ask him what he'd do and he is likely to reply: "I'd do the things I didn't have the sense to do when I was young and broke. I'd roam the world. I'd go to the South Seas and become a beachcomber."

"I'd make Romeo look like the schoolboy he really was. There'd be no nonsense about going steady with the first dame looking for a steady meal ticket. I'd love them where I found them, and leave them where I loved them."

It is too bad some philanthropic foundation doesn't now and then issue grants to middle-aged men to test the truth of their dreams. Nothing would frighten them more.

For the fine fancy freedom the ordinary middle-aged man claims he craves is the last thing, which, in fact, would give him real satisfaction.

When a man has a mortgage on his house and has made a down payment on his ulcer, it is too late for him to essay the role of a wandering Casanova with either competence or enjoyment. It is too late also for him, in most cases, to abandon happily the discipline of his daily job.

The rut he rebels against is in reality his refuge.

If he were given the chance to live out his fondly held dream, within a week or month the pitiable wretch would be clamoring to return to the chains of his old duty. Absolute freedom would make him sick.

But the middle-aged man's dream of escape from routine does him no harm. He likes only himself, and a little illusion is necessary for us all.

One of the pleasantest things about dreams is we don't have to make them come true—and find out they are really only nightmares.

business and with the ladies.

Miss Tessler says men who buy hairpieces fall into categories, in either of the volumes: 1. young business men; 2. doctors and lawyers; 3. clergymen; 4. theatrical and TV. "Mostly people prematurely balding in their 20's and 30's. I once had a customer of 60—that is something."

Bath sponges exist mostly in the waters of the Mediterranean, off the coast of Florida and off the Bahamas.

Wonderful Oven Team

Colorful Salmon or Tuna Loaf takes to Special Tomato Casserole like "ducks take to water." In both flavor and preparation, the dishes are linked at the same temperature for the same length of time, and they use canned foods, making dinner easy to get. For eye-appeal and good eating, too, garnish the loaf platter with canned spiced pears.

Celery Salmon or Tuna Loaf
1 can (1 lb.) salmon or tuna
2 cans (6 1/2 to 7 oz. each) celery soup
1 beaten egg
1 can condensed cream of celery soup
1 cup tiny bread cubes
To drained and flaked salmon or tuna add egg, soup and crumbs; mix well. Bake in a greased and floured small loaf pan in a moderate oven (375 degrees) 30 minutes, until firm. Four servings.

Special Tomato Casserole
3 slices day old bread
1/2 cup butter, or margarine
1 medium size onion
1/4 cup thinly sliced celery
1 can (1 lb.) tomatoes
Salt
Pepper
Cut bread into cubes and brown in butter. In a casserole combine sliced onion, celery, tomatoes and bread cubes. Season with salt and pepper. Bake in a moderate oven (375 degrees) about 30 minutes. Four servings.

Bailey Trying to Escape Chair

LITTLE ROCK (AP)—U.S. District Judge Gordon E. Young has taken under study the latest legal effort of Lillian Bailey to avoid death in the electric chair for rape.

Bailey, a 48-year-old Woodstock, Negro, contends in a petition for a writ of habeas corpus that the number of Negroes on jury panels has been systematically limited at Little Rock, where he was convicted.

He says this should void his conviction and death sentence.

Young presided over a several hour hearing yesterday.

Bailey was convicted of rape of a white widow in Little Rock in 1950.

Smackover Students Injured in Fall

SMACKOVER, Ark. (AP)—Five Smackover High School students were injured, two of them seriously, when a scaffold collapsed yesterday and the youths fell 25 feet to a concrete floor.

Two other students escaped injury.

The seven youths, members of a carpentry class, were sanding an auditorium ceiling when the scaffold gave way.

Roy Thompson and Jack Hight, both 18, suffered arm fractures and were hospitalized. Three other youths were examined at a hospital and released.

WHEN THE GOING GETS ROUGH...

More Power To You

Constant mixing action, even when working on heavy peanut-butter cookie batter, is built into this new KitchenAid "power portable" mixer, just introduced. Exclusive power booster action provides added power automatically when the going gets rough, cuts off again when the mixture thins out. Because of this power-booster "additive," mixer has lower folding speed, making it possible to add dry ingredients without threat of having them splattered all over the work area.

Murals Achieve Scenic Splendour

This breathless "view of a colorful formal garden" seen through a spacious "picture window" is achieved with one of the new wallpaper murals. Decorators are creating dramatic scenic illusions with murals these days. Rooms take on new personalities with a view of Paris in the Spring, a colonial village street, a Mediterranean garden, or the sweeping grandeur of a distant mountain range... and it's all done with wallpaper panels, a practical device for lifting the ordinary into the realm of the delightfully different. They are so easy to apply. Ready pasted, the panels need only be cut, dipped and hung. Do-it-yourself enthusiasts find it a simple and fascinating project. For example, the formal garden scene, shown above, is complete on four strips of 20 inch wide wallpaper. The soft ground tones of the mural are repeated in the paper used on surrounding wall areas to heighten the impression of expansiveness and depth. The first wallpaper murals were priced in the luxury class, but now a number of reproductions are available at a cost within the reach of average budgets because they are made by newly-developed printing techniques. Scenic murals can be used in many different rooms and will blend with most styles of furniture. All these new wallpaper murals are washable.

THE STORY: As Mark Holmes and Pete Jackson return from a bar association meeting on icy roads, there is a car accident. Pete had just been telling Mark to stay out of his domestic troubles. Pete's wife Karen had called on Mark once and asked his advice, and Pete said he could not advise her except to say they should talk out their difficulties.

CHAPTER X

Rose was in the waiting room at the end of the corridor. It was a little after nine in the morning; Miss Lackey, the secretary, had come and taken Debbie for her present. It seemed to Rose, looking blindly at others waiting there, that she had spent her entire life in this room... which was silly, for Mark had been hospitalized only for—how long in actual time?—was it days or weeks since the state police officer had rung the doorbell and when she came downstairs, half asleep, a rube flung around her, said, "Mrs. Holmes?"

Once a day Rose went to see Pete, who was on another floor, with a badly fractured leg. She hadn't that first night, but the next day Mark had a lucid moment. The doctors called it a "free interval." And he'd asked, "How's Pete?"

She didn't want to see, or speak to, or think of him ever again; or of Karen, crying helplessly in this same waiting room, literally wringing her time long hands and saying over and over, "I'm so sorry. Rose, so sorry."

Sorry for her? Sorry because of Mark? Sorry that Pete was driving the car?

He'd been officially absolved, he had not been traveling fast. It was possible that he had taken his eyes off the road for a moment or turned his head. No one knew. He didn't. But in any case, the glittering hidden ice beneath the hood of the car was the seat of the emwas there, for anyone to see—afterwards.

Everyone told Rose how wonderful she was, so self-contained, listening to the doctors, asking the right questions, calm, hopeful; consoling and encouraging the children, noting, objectively, Jim's sudden maturity and Debbie's terror.

People were kind, they were very good to her. She's had to waken Debbie and take her along to the hospital, but while the X-rays were being taken, the nurses were being taken, now Aunt Gwen was there, to stay in the house, Mark's sister, Rose, looking blindly at others would come when she found someone to remain with her father. Rose's mother also arrived.

Rose knew the diagnosis "by heart, the strange, meaningless and meaningful words. "A linear fracture which crossed a meningeal groove in the temporal bone, producing epidural hemorrhage."

The consultants had decided against surgery.

The prognosis, Steve told her gently, was not good.

Rose sat beside Mark and held his hand. She put hers in his, so that he would feel his over her own. It was a strong hand, even now.

"If anything happens..." He halted and she held her breath. Don't say it, darling; please don't say it.

"Nothing will happen, Mark. It will take time, but you're going to be all right."

"Of course. But if anything does, you and the kids will be taken care of, within reason."

She said, aloud, "I love you, darling."

"I love you, too," he answered courteously. There was nothing back of it but emptiness. You know, you can tell. It is said that the brain is the seat of the emo-

...someone who isn't here."

Miss Burtis took Mark's hand from Rose. When she had made an entry on the chart, she said, "He has a brain injury, Mrs. Holmes." She called Steve.

Miss Burtis rose from beside the bed and looked at Steve. Perhaps she remained, perhaps not; surely Steve stayed, but Rose didn't know. She did not see them; and was never able to remember. She and Mark were together, essentially alone.

Nothing changed as she sat there, holding his hand, but his expression and his breathing. The Cheyne-Stokes breathing; the breath, the long agonizing pause; the breath again; the pause; and, finally the cessation. Now, she was truly alone.

Highway Plans New Projects

LITTLE ROCK (AP)—The state Highway Department has added 2 million dollars worth of construction projects to its April 27 letting. The five jobs bring the total to six million dollars.

One of the new projects is a 1.7 mile stretch of the Little Rock-to-Memphis interstate highway in Pulaski County.

Lumber Dealers Open Meeting

LITTLE ROCK (AP)—The 56th annual convention of the Arkansas Assn. of Lumber Dealers opens today with a mock Senate investigation of the lumber business scheduled for the afternoon session.

Also planned for the two-day convention is an election of officers, the viewing of several University of Arkansas football game films and discussion of a Look Magazine article dealing with the lumber industry.

Former Arkansas Gov. Louie B. Throgmorton, an executive of a Dallas insurance firm, will speak at the annual dinner tonight.

Heads Berlin Deal

BONN, Germany (AP)—Chancellor Konrad Adenauer says the main motive behind his call for a Berlin plebiscite was to head off a deal on Berlin at the summit conference.

Adenauer told German newsmen Tuesday night he had been concerned that the Western Big Three might fall prey to pressures that they achieve some kind of agreement at the summit.

Therefore, he said, he proposed in a speech in Washington last month that the 2,200,000 residents of West Berlin say in a poll whether they want to remain under Western occupation.

"Best You Ever Ate" Meat Loaf

Oh the savory satisfaction of Meat Loaf when it's made just right. It's a dish to warm the very cockles of your heart. But on the sawdusty sadness of Meat Loaf made wrong. Determined to discover an easy, foolproof way to make marvelous Meat Loaf, we tested and tasted with loving care till we came up with our recipe for "Best You Ever Ate" Meat Loaf. Just wait till you taste this beauty. Its crust is glossy, its flavor savory, its interior juicy and tender, and it slices like butter yet stays firm. "Best You Ever Ate" Meat Loaf is a proud, precious dish to serve often.

What makes it so good? The "perfection" ingredient in "Best You Ever Ate" Meat Loaf is evaporated milk, used undiluted for its creamy, flavor-carrying qualities and the light, juicy texture it imparts. Economical, no egg is necessary when evaporated milk is the meat loaf binder. In this recipe, every ingredient is balanced to give you a favorite, everyday dish at its absolute best.

"Best You Ever Ate" Meat Loaf

1 cup evaporated milk
1 1/2 cups soft bread crumbs
2 teaspoons salt
2 teaspoons dry mustard

1/4 teaspoon pepper
1/2 teaspoon thyme, optional
1/4 cup minced onion
1 1/2 pounds ground beef

Combine evaporated milk and bread crumbs in mixing bowl. Add seasonings and minced onion; beat until thoroughly blended. Add ground beef; mix well with fork. Form mixture into loaf in a shallow baking pan. Bake in a moderate oven (350°F.) 1 hour.

U.S. Is Told Britain Can Buy Rocket

WASHINGTON (AP) — President Eisenhower is reported to have assured Prime Minister Harold Macmillan that Britain will be able to buy the projected new U.S. nuclear rocket Skybolt as soon as it comes into production.

That assurance growing out of a discussion when Eisenhower and Macmillan met at Camp David, Md., two weeks ago, apparently is behind the British government's decision, announced today, to abandon its fixed base Blue-streak, a 2,500-mile-range rocket.

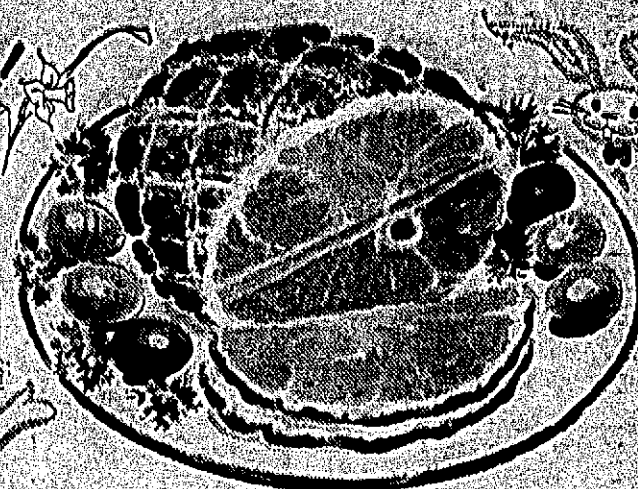

Eisenhower and Macmillan also talked about the Polaris submarine missile but highly placed officials said they decided against making a firm decision on the Polaris now.

U.S. officials said Britain's announcement boiled down to the fact that the British were giving up Blue-streak because it would be outdated by the time they could make it operational.

The Skybolt and Polaris are radically different weapons systems in that they are designed to operate from mobile bases. The Skybolt with its nuclear warhead is projected for firing from a jet bomber aircraft as much as 1,000 miles distant from the target. The Skybolt is an Air Force development and officials hope it will be available for full-scale testing in 18 months.

You're sure to have! And how you'll save!

Wide Moves by Some of Science Stock

By ED MORSE
AP Business News Writer

NEW YORK (AP)—Wide moves by some of the "science" stocks mixed stock market early this afternoon. Trading was moderately active.

Gains and losses of fractions to and selected issues featured a point prevailed among key stocks as the market averages went nowhere in particular.

Trading interest moved some specially tilted stocks from 1 to around 5 points.

Trading was dampened by the withdrawal of funds to meet income tax payments by the scheduled April 15 deadline and the long Easter weekend, including Good Friday, a market holiday.

A rise in the U.S. Treasury bill rate was ascribed by some to expectations that quickening business activity later on would bring about increasing competition for funds.

Steels and motors were mostly lower. Electronics and some of the chemicals advanced. Most major groups were uneven.

Motorola and General Time gained more than 2 points apiece. Universal Match, Radio Corp. and Texas Instruments were up more than a point apiece.

Beech Aircraft was a 3-point gainer as a stock split was declared a possibility.

Steels backed away from Tuesday's gains, most of the leaders dropping fractions. Lukens, which reported a leap in earnings, rose more than a point.

General Electric dropped a point. The firm reported lower sales. Eastman Kodak advanced about 2, Liggett & Myers more than a point.

The Dow Jones industrial average at noon was up .75 to 627.25.

The Associated Press average of 60 stocks at noon was unchanged at 16.10 with the industrials off .20, the rails unchanged and the utilities up .10.

Corporate bonds were firm in fair turnover. U.S. governments advanced.

Says Checked Before Flying to Louisiana

WASHINGTON (AP)—Chairman Jerome K. Kukendall of the Federal Power Commission said today he checked with Rep. Orrin Harris (D-Ark.) before hand to colleagues flew to Louisiana in a big gas company's private plane.

Harris, chairman of a House subcommittee investigating FPC activities confirmed that Kukendall had talked to him beforehand and said that he saw nothing wrong in what the FPC commissioners did.

"I would do the same thing myself under similar circumstances," Harris told reporters.

Kukendall acknowledged last night that he and two other FPC members made the flight in the gas company's plane last month to attend the funeral of FPC Commissioner John B. Hussey, who died March 17.

Harris said Kukendall called him the day before and said the only way he could get to Louisiana in time for the funeral was to make the flight in a private plane.

"I told him to go ahead," Harris said. "I think it was a perfectly proper thing to do and anyone who makes anything out of this is pretty small."

Kukendall, asked why he had checked with Harris, said he did so because Harris is chairman of the committee considering legislation to prevent backdoor influencing of regulatory agencies.

The FPC chairman said he was aware that making the flight in the private plane might be open to question and possibly criticism, and that he wanted to obtain Harris' advice before making the flight.

Weather Warning Issued Today

LITTLE ROCK (AP)—The U.S. Weather Bureau at Little Rock today issued the following weather warning:

"Thunderstorms in eastern Kansas and eastern Oklahoma are expected to intensify this afternoon as they move northeastward — with scattered severe thunderstorms producing a tornado or two and damaging surface winds during the period 2 p.m. to 8 p.m. (CST) in an area along and 60 miles either side of a line from Ardmore, Okla., to Joplin, Mo. This includes portions of Benton and Washington counties in north-west Arkansas."

Boy 4, Drowns

LITTLE ROCK (AP)—A four-year-old boy fell into a water hazard on the Little Rock Air Force Base golf course and drowned yesterday.

Michael Baugh, son of T. Sgt. and Mrs. Edgar Baugh of the Air Base, pulled from the shallow pond after he had been under water 18 minutes. Efforts to revive him failed.
